Four Departments. Every Box Says You.

You're a company of one with four jobs. Most agents only show up for one of them.

STORY TIME

SAY IT OUT LOUD

I didn't get a license. I started a business.

My broker taught me the difference.

No saqué una licencia. Monté un negocio. Mi broker me enseñó la diferencia.

Most agents only staff Sales. The other three boxes sit empty until the pipeline dries up.

Four Departments. One Engine.

Each department feeds the next one. Skip one and the whole thing stalls.

When the loop runs, year three is easier than year one. When it doesn't, every month starts at zero.

Quando el ciclo corre, el tercer año es más fácil que el primero.

01

— DEPARTMENT 1 OF 4

Business Development.

One Person at a Time.

The people you know, the people they know, and the partners who send you business.

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE THIS WEEK

01

Sphere and past clients

Home anniversaries and market updates about their home, not a “just checking in” text

02

Referral partners

Lenders, attorneys, inspectors and builders who send you clients

03

Open houses

Face to face with neighbors and buyers who don't have an agent yet

04

Follow-up

Every conversation logged in Lofty, with the next touch on the calendar

05

Community

Show up where your people already are: events, church, school, sports

THE NUMBER

Conversations per week

Real two-way conversations. Likes don't count. A text left on read doesn't count.

Sales. Conversations Into Contracts.

Everybody likes this department. It only works when the other three feed it.

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE THIS WEEK

01

Speed to lead

Answer fast and set the appointment while they still care

02

Buyer consultation

A signed Buyer Broker Agreement before the first showing

03

Listing presentation

A price, a plan and a signed listing agreement

04

Showings and offers

Complete offer packages, presented the same day

05

Negotiation and follow-up

Stay on it until they sign or tell you no

THE NUMBER

Admin. Clean Deals. Known Numbers.

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE THIS WEEK

- 01 Transactions
Every document in dotloop when it happens, not the night before closing
- 02 CRM hygiene
Stages, notes and next tasks current in Lofty
- 03 Compliance
The Standard on every file, every time
- 04 Money
A budget, a monthly P&L, and taxes set aside every time you get paid
- 05 Calendar
Planned every Monday, with a block for every department

What came in, what went out, what you set aside, and what's left. Plus zero missing documents in dotloop.

YOU

When a Department Closes, You Feel It.

You can't really close a department. You can only stop showing up for it. Here's what that costs.

CLOSED

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Feast or famine.

Your pipeline runs on luck, and past clients call another agent when it's time to sell.

CLOSED

MARKETING

Nobody new knows you sell homes.

Your business only grows as fast as your contact list.

SALES

Leads go cold.

You pay for conversations and never get the signature.

ADMIN

Deals and money slip away.

Missing files at closing, a pipeline you can't see, and a tax bill you didn't plan for.

Which one did you feel this year?

Hold on to the answer. You'll use it in the lab.

The CEO Week.

One Block per Department.

What's Next for Marketing? We Pick Together.

One vote each. Whatever wins is what we build in the next sessions.

Refresh your cold video and restart the campaigns you paused.
